Tricentennial Ball

ROCHESTER 300

An enthusiastic group of Rochester residents and guests celebrated the TriCentennial year of Rochester's founding with a ball at the Rochester Woman's Club on Saturday night. A contingent of "British Troops" lent the affair a dash of color and symbolized the state of the nation in 1679. The "British" formed an honor guard at the entrance to the clubhouse and entering guests were recipients of a salute. Many came in colonial costume.

On the cover (clockwise from the top), Mr. and Mrs. George Church arrive, British Officer Allen Cournoyer, Karen Stenberg and Elizabeth Herganhan admire the finery of arriving ball goers, plumed hatted Allen :

Ladner dances with his wife Jane; it's not the minuet Dick and Darlene Chase are doing in this candid shot; "Indians" Richard and Nancy Andrews; Woman's Club President Nancylee Gaucher and Philippe Gaucher enter the ballroom.

The British escorted Rochester Selectman Julia S. Enroth, Selectman and Mrs. George Bare, and Mattapoissett Selectman and Mrs. John DeCosta to their table, and then performed a manual of arms after standing inspection by Captain Gaucher.

Dancing followed until 1 P.M. to the music of The Travelers.

Veterans' Park. Signs posted at the park to notify the public of the ban had been constantly removed and police had been under the impression that they could not enforce the town by-law without such signs. Accordingly, the Selectmen sought opinion from Town Counsel Donald Fleming and are informed that they can adopt such regulations and that no sign is necessary to the enforcement.

The Board voted to prohibit drinking at the Park with the one exception of a period between 8 A.M. and 8 P.M. on Sunday to allow family consumption of alcoholic beverages during outings and picnics.

FORMER CETA WORKERS MAY REAPPLY

Hundreds of former CETA workers whose public service jobs were cut short because of a one-year limit on participation are now eligible to re-apply for CETA services.

Persons wishing to apply for a CETA job may do so at the CETA office in their hometown or at the New Bedford Regional Job Center, 181 Hillman Street, New Bedford.

Persons should bring proof of name, address, date of birth and social security number.

Now there are two ways to avoid accidental overdrafts.

For some time, we've offered Maxichек, a cash reserve of $500 to $2500, which we can add to any Plymouth-Home checking account. It's proven to be a good way to transfer money into a checking account as protection against inadvertent overdrafts. With Maxichек, it's also possible to borrow from yourself, whenever you need extra money, just by writing a regular check and repaying in monthly installments.

Now, you have a new option at Plymouth-Home. Because we can transfer money from your savings account into your checking account,* whenever it's needed. Once you authorize such transfers, you'll never have to worry about overdrafts again.

For more information on how these options automatically restore your balance and help you avoid embarrassment, stop in at our nearest office, or call us at 583-6700.

parts and a couple of plays written for CBS's "Studio One" round out Sylvia's acting career. She has directed community productions for the South Shore Players in Norwell, the Milton Players and a semi-professional group in Old Greenwich, Conn. and is "glad to be back at what I love best to do".

In spite of his first role as the corpse in "Arsenic and Old Lace", Ted Babbitt has played some very lively characters, first with the St. Gabriel Players and then the Marion Art Center Players. He was unforgettable as Oscar in "The Odd Couple", and the embittered George in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf". Over a dozen acting roles attest to the versatility of Ted's talent. He directed "Solid Gold Cadillac", "Dirty Work in Crossroads", "Janus", and "Seven Little Indians". Now in another Neil Simon characterization, you can expect Ted as Barney in "Last of the Red Hot Lovers" to keep you in stitches!

Kathy Cabral, a resident of Dartmouth and a senior at SMU, has appeared in numerous SMU and community theater productions. They include "Lysistrata", "The Miracle Worker", "Brecht on Brecht", "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying", "Medea" and Billie Dawn in "Born Yesterday".

Mattapoisett Seniors

The coming weeks will be busy ones for members of the Mattapoisett Senior Citizens' Club.

The Spring calendar of events gets underway on Thursday, April 5, with a meeting and program in St. Anthony's Hall, starting at 1 P.M.

Joseph C. Perry, president, will preside as business is discussed. Later in the afternoon Manuel J. Sylvia, a member, will entertain by showing slides he has taken over the years of Mattapoisett and some of its outstanding activities. Mr. Sylvia, a

Increased gas mileage...one test car got 27 more miles per tankful.

Reduced oil consumption...up to 25% improvement in engines in good mechanical condition.

Faster sub-zero starts...engines will turn over faster even down to -45°F below zero; beyond where conventional oils freeze solid.

Excellent hot weather performance... up to 580°F engine temperatures; far beyond where conventional oils eventually break down.

Keeps engines cleaner...78% less build up on intake valves in one test.

Better engine protection...virtually no measurable wear in test engines run an average of 27,000 miles without an oil change.

"owner Irving Bookstein ... has set about successfully to offer both good food AND a good time in his Jolly Whaler ... comfortably attractive with an easy, relaxed atmosphere that is felt immediately. The waitresses are notably pleasant, friendly and helpful - a refreshing treat."

"... a fine spread of help-yourself food at a salad and bread bar, with about 40 different things to choose from - not your basic salad bar at all."

"That beef cut is one of the house specialties, as excellent a piece of prime rib as you'll find, cut to a size to suit your appetite."

"Duckling is another specialty ... served flambeed, and was very well cooked, moist and crispy with a Mandarin sauce."

"Lunch choices are posted each day ... the list is a lengthy one. The music, such a nice touch in the evening, is also featured during luncheon."

"... late in the evening ... Saturdays, you may order until midnight from the late menu. Spare ribs, chicken wings, sandwiches, steaks and the prime ribs are available. Snacks and hot hors d'oeuvres are offered in the lounge with cocktails."

"There's a very good and reasonably priced bottled wine selection, and house wines are available by the glass or carafe ... Desserts are homemade, except for the New York cheesecake that really is from New York. A big puffy strawberry shortcake, puddings, parfaits and pies are on the list."

"So, whether you are dining out in the day-time or evening, you can have as fine a time and as fine a meal as we had in this unusual restaurant."

"A Funny Thing..."

In a spectacular production of the musical comedy, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum, the Old Rochester Regional High School Drama Club triumphed in their annual Spring production under the direction of Mary Saloschin.

This musical was well received by theatre goers at the Friday and Saturday night performances at the high school auditorium.

Spring Music at Tabor

CHORAL ACTIVITIES CONTINUE TO FLOURISH AT TABOR

No sooner will the Spring Term begin at Tabor when the Music Department will host the girls' chorus of Dana Hall School, Wellesley. The choral concert will be held in Lyndon South Auditorium on the school campus at 7:00 P.M. on Friday, April 6th. This will be one of five concert exchanges organized by Mr. Pavone, Music Director, which also included Wheeler School, Providence; Notre Dama Academy, Hingham; Brimmer & May School, Chestnut Hill; and Lincoln School of Providence. The famous Lamberkins from Lincoln School, known for their fine performance of madrigals, will appear on the program of the Spring Music Festival in May which features Renaissance musical fare.

The girls from Dana Hall will sing selections from their touring repertoire. Both the Tabor-Tones from Tabor and the girls' chorus from Dana Hall will perform in this year's International Music Festival in Bermuda. The public is cordially welcome to all of these programs and invited to join

Spring Concert Series

The Spring Concert Series, sponsored by the Creative Arts Council of the Fairhaven Unitarian Memorial Church, will open on Good Friday, April 13th. The beauty of Olde English Gothic-style architecture, sculpture, rare woodcarving and glorious stained glass windows telling the Christ story, will be the setting. The Sanctuary will be open for meditation and prayer from 3:00-5:00 o'clock for members of all Churches and friends of the greater community; and at 4:00 there will be beautiful music presented by Herbert H. Bowker, organist and choir director. Mr. Bowker will play from the works of J.S. Bach, Reubke, Couperin, Buxtehude and Cesar Franck.

The Concert Series will continue on the weekend of April 21 - 22. The opening program will be held on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Sanctuary, presenting two outstanding visiting artists from West Germany: Ulrich Loschky, organist, and Albrecht Eichberg, trumpeter; and on Sunday afternoon, again at four o'clock, the Brass Ensemble of Northeastern University, Boston, will give a concert under the direction of Professor Matthew McGarrell, Director of the University Instrumental Music Department.

EXHIBIT OF CLASSICAL SCULPTURES

A retrospective exhibition of 65 years of Classical Sculptures by the late Bashka Paeff of Cambridge will be held from April 3 to April 28 at Exhibition Center of The Society of Arts and Crafts, 175 Newbury Street, Boston. The public is invited and is free.

The artist, sister of Mrs. Joseph Lipsitt of Marion, received national acclaim for her work in the realistic and traditional, creating sculptures, Bas Reliefs, and monuments that are in innumerable private collections and public locations throughout the country.

Her works include the Bas Relief (monumental size) of chaplains of World War I permanently hung in the State House, Boston. The huge monument, a World War I Memorial of "The Minute Men", on Bowling Green, Lexington, Mass. and the "Boy and Bird", fountain (in bronze) in the Boston Public Gardens, on the Arlington Street entrance. Her portraits, life size, sculpture of celebrities and children, are

The New Bedford YWCA is pleased to engage the services of Miss Christine Prokop as ballet instructor for the adult class. Five-week courses will begin on Monday, April 9, from 6-7 P.M. and Tuesday, April 10, from 6-7 P.M. Advance registration should be made at the YWCA.

Miss Prokop will teach basic ballet with Russian techniques, stressing expression, creativity and disciplined body movement. GADABOUTS

Another vacation week "Grandparents Treat" is planned by the YWCA Gadabouts. A trip to Higgins Armory Museum in Worcester on Friday, April 20, is planned. The bus will leave at 9 A.M. and return by 4 P.M.

Reservations should be made with Rita Grenon or Edna Harrington at the YWCA, 66 Spring Street, New Bedford.

ART EXHIBIT

Watercolors, pastels and charcoals by Maurice Costa and Joli Gonsalves, director of the Cape Verdean Cultural Center, will be on display in the YWCA lobby during April. A showcase of straw baskets,

O.R.R. Sports

The Old Rochester Regional baseball team will open their season against Middleboro on Wednesday, April 4. After a 4-16 record last year, Coach Eddy is stressing pitching, defense and fundamentals. ORR has looked good in pre-season scrimmages against Stang and Diman Voke.

Leading the team is Captain Paul Fleugel, a 3-year starter, and will be playing centerfield. Senior Bob Tinkham will be the starting catcher along with John Costa at shortstop. Mark Fairweather will be the Bulldog's starting pitcher with Jeff Pavao at first base and Paul Tinkham at second. Other varsity players are Marc Beaulieu, shortstop, pitcher; George Randall, outfield; Jason Beardsley, catcher, outfield; David Hanas, second, outfield; Jeff Hoff, pitcher, third base; Mark Hartley, outfield, and freshman Mike Xavier, an impressive hitter, pitcher.

MISS WAREHAM PAGEANT

The date for the 18th annual Miss Wareham Pageant has been set and committee members of the Scholarship Pageant, Inc. are busily at work to make the Pageant a success once again. Rita Blair, 1979's General Chairman of the Miss Wareham Pageant, announced that the pageant will be held on Sunday, April 29, at the Old Rochester Regional High School in Mattapoisett at 4:30 P.M.

The Miss Wareham Pageant is the local preliminary competition to the Miss America Pageant which is the largest scholarship organization, solely for women, in the United States. The Miss America program gives over $250,000. in scholarships each year to deserving women to further their education in pursuit of career goals.

The Miss Wareham Pageant is the first step to Miss America and every girl's dream of becoming a queen and donning a crown and banner. The second step is the Miss Massachusetts Pageant and the winner of the state competition goes on to Atlantic City, New Jersey, hopefully to fulfill her dream.

In all phases of competition from local preliminary to state to Miss America, contestants take part in a four part competitive program: a private seven minute interview with five impartial judges; swimsuit competition; a talent presentation; and evening gown competition. The young lady is judged on her poise,

At this meeting conferees shared ideas and discussed new approaches to middle school and junior high school education.

Mr. Pfeninger, who has served as a member of the Steering Committee for two years, was instrumental in the planning of workshop topics and conference arrangements.

Mr. Gardner served as a conference discussion leader, conducting an administrators' seminar session on "Team Teaching: Its Present Status".

ART FAIR AT SMU

An Art Fair for children of all ages and their parents will be held at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Saturday, April 7, from 10 A.M. to noon.

The fifth annual Art Fair, sponsored by SMU's Art Education Department is free to everyone. Last year's fair was enjoyed by approximately 350 people, from toddlers through high school students.

The fair will be "two hours of intensive art experience", says Professor Dante Vena, organizer of the event on the SMU campus. "A cross section of the Arts will be represented -- including painting, drawing, sculpture, printing, kite-making, tint-

Theatrical people, music faculty, dancers, musicians, mural painters, professional artists, and mimics will participate in the fair and hold workshops for the children.

"There will be such a variety of events (including a puppet show) that all ages can become involved," says Vena. "And," he adds, "there will be munchies and gingerbread."

Besides the youngsters and parents, senior citizens are also invited to help and participate. The Art Fair will be held in the Group VI (Fine Arts) Building adjacent to parking lots 8 and 9.

EXHIBIT, "NOTABLES OF NEW BEDFORD"

A premiere exhibit, "Notables of New Bedford", will be on view at the Wamsutta Club of New Bedford from April 5th through 30th.

The artist and originator of this event is Margo Volterra, who is also well known as an independent organizational consultant. The work on display are the artist's interpretations of widely recognized individuals who appear frequently in the New Bedford Standard-Times. Using charcoal as her primary tool, Ms. Volterra has assembled a random sampling of colorful individuals whose personalities and characters come alive for the viewer.

Some of the notables who will be represented are Congressman Gerry Studds, Mayor John A. Markey, City Council Representatives Moniz, Brooker, Saltzman and Saulnier; President and Mrs. Carter and former Governor Dukakis.

Ms. Volterra holds a B.F.A. from Boston University, in addition to post-graduate courses in art and political science. Her work has been exhibited both locally and throughout the region. Creating this show is a departure from her more interpretative work, but nonetheless is a major contri-

S.M.U. Faculty Series

PIANO AND VOCAL MUSIC PERFORMANCES

The Southeastern Massachusetts University Faculty Concert Series, sponsored by the Music Department, will feature Eleanor Carlson, pianist, in performance on Sunday, April 8, at 3 P.M. in the SMU auditorium.

Eleanor Carlson is currently chairperson of the Music Department at SMU. She is well-known throughout New England for her recitals and workshops. She is also a well-known teacher whose students have won numerous competitions and scholarships.

Dr. Carlson, a resident of Westport, holds a bachelor's degree from Oberlin College Conservatory of Music, a master's degree from the Indiana University School of Music, and a doctorate from Boston University. She also studied for a year in Germany under a German Government Grant and for two years in Paris under successive Fulbright and French Government Grants. While in France she won the Prix Debussy. Dr. Carlson has recently been awarded a sabbatical leave from SMU which will enable her to return to Europe for further study and to give a series of recitals there.

Sunday afternoon's program will include five Intermezzi by Brahms, Estampes by Debussy, four Chopin Mazurkas, and the Sonata of Alberto Ginastera.

All Faculty and Guest Artist Series performances at SMU are free and open to the public.

The presentation was made to principals, supervisors, and teachers from around the state. It involved the evaluation process of students' strengths and needs in math, the steps taken to help the student through his/her needs, the methods of instruction involved, and the materials used, both in the classroom and resource room.

A question and answer session followed the presentation which took place at the Sheraton-Tara in Boston.

BOARD OF APPEALS

Notice is hereby given that Public Hearings will be held on the following petitions on THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1979 in the Conference Room of the Town Hall.

1. Petition of Conrad H. Roy, Ocean Drive, Mattapoisett to continue uses he has established on his premises and claims that he has been complying with zoning in the melting of metals for the creating of keels on property at Ocean Drive and said property further being shown as Lot 12 on Plot 15B of the Mattapoisett Assessors' records. Hearing to be held at 7:30 P.M. on the above date.

2. Petition of Andrew John & Elleen S. Hess, 15 North Street,
Mattapoisett for a variance from the conditions of Section
V.B.4.a. of the Zoning By-Law which requires a lot to have 20,000 square feet unoccupied by buildings for the conversion of a one-family house to a two-family house. Property is shown as being Lot 132 on Plot 9 of the Mattapoisett Assessors' records. Hearing to be held at 7:45 P.M. on the above date.
